I spent 4 childhood years in Gidole and therefore named this font after it. Gidole is a small beautiful rural town in Ethiopia @ 5°38′57.8″N 37°22′08.7″E overlooking the Great Rift Valley.

The font is work in progress, 100% free & open source.

Design

It's my modern take on the classic Deutsches Institut für Normung #1451 with it's geometric and simplistic beauty that doesn't sacrifice legibility.

It shines in UI, titles, logos, signs and the like.

NB: The tracking is adjusted for text so you might want to reduce it for headlines.
